Available for customized school and district training or conference appearances!

About Jane

In addition to writing books, Jane has given hundreds of workshops to fellow teachers around the country. Her subject? The same as in her classroom, where she happily taught elementary or middle school for more than 30 years — teaching students to write well.

Jane served many years both as grade-level chair, and the chair of various departments, over her tenure as a classroom teacher. She is also a past president of the Alachua County Teachers of English. Jane has been recognized three times by “Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers.” In 2002 she won Teacher of the Year for her school and Middle School Teacher of the Year for her county.

Through the Maupin House Speakers Bureau, Jane customizes professional development to fit the needs of her audience. See booking information below.
