

Contents

Acknowledgements ..... vi

CHAPTER ONE

INTRODUCTION TO TEACHING TARGET SKILLS WITH MODELS ..... 1

- The Purpose of This Book ..... 1
- Writing Craft and the Reading Connection ..... 2
- Teaching Writing Craft ..... 2
- Writing-Craft Instruction Resources ..... 3
- Using Literature Models ..... 4
- General Writing Skills and Genre-Associated Skills ..... 5
- Definition of Terms ..... 5
- Using the Lists ..... 6

CHAPTER TWO

GENERAL WRITING-CRAFT SKILLS ..... 7

- Description: Skills for Creating Imagery ..... 7
  - Books Rich in Description ..... 8
  - Strong Verbs ..... 9
  - Attribute Adjectives ..... 12
  - Literary Devices for Comparison ..... 14
    - 1. Simile ..... 14
    - 2. Metaphor ..... 16
    - 3. Other ways to make comparisons ..... 17
  - Personification ..... 19
  - Onomatopoeia ..... 20
  - Specificity ..... 22
- Other General Writing-Craft Skills ..... 25
  - Alliteration ..... 25
  - Contrast ..... 28
  - Embedded Definitions ..... 30
  - Clues for Readers to Make Inferences ..... 33
  - Riddle Books* ..... 35
  - Repetition ..... 36
  - Beginnings ..... 39
    - 1. Question ..... 40
    - 2. Exclamation ..... 42

3. Startling fact.....	42
4. Statement of fact or opinion .....	44
5. Setting (time or place).....	45
6. Definition .....	46
7. Onomatopoeia.....	48
8. Alliteration.....	49
9. Idiom .....	49
10. Rhymes or Ditties.....	50
11. Dialogue or a Quotation.....	51
12. The name of a story character or a person associated with the topic.....	52
13. Description of a person: story character or a person in the article.....	53
14. An event in progress .....	54
15. Thoughts or action of a story character.....	55
16. Conflict.....	56
17. A letter or a note.....	56
Endings.....	57
1. Question.....	57
2. Exclamation .....	59
3. Universal word.....	61
4. Advice to the reader.....	62
5. Reminder .....	63
6. Adage or Homily .....	64
7. Quotation.....	65
8. End of a process or cycle .....	65
9. Circle back to the hook.....	66
Sentence Variation .....	68
Voice Techniques .....	70
1. Using personal pronouns.....	70
2. Aside to the Reader .....	72

CHAPTER THREE

THE GENRES AND THEIR ASSOCIATED WRITING-CRAFT SKILLS ... 74

Narrative .....	74
Personal Narrative .....	75
Informational Narrative .....	76
Fiction .....	77
Fiction models for each plot type .....	78
1. Character with a problem or goal.....	78
2. Character vs nature.....	79
3. Lost and found.....	79

4. Good guys vs bad guys.....	80
5. Mystery (or crime) and solution .....	80
6. Boy meets girl .....	81
Fiction Written in the Present Tense .....	81
Genre Skills Specific to Narrative .....	82
Time Transitions .....	84
Place transitions.....	85
Changes in action .....	86
Change in speaker .....	87
Expository .....	87
Informational Text .....	88
Informational Text Structure .....	88
Main idea (and perhaps subtopics) with supporting details .....	88
Main idea with many examples .....	90
Directions, life cycles, procedures, and process description .....	91
Comparison.....	93
Definition .....	96
Cause and Effect .....	97
Personal Expository .....	99
Persuasion.....	101
Friendly Letters .....	102
Narrative.....	102
Expository.....	102
EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHERS .....	104
PROFESSIONAL BOOKS .....	104
INDEX OF LITERATURE CITED .....	105
TARGET SKILLS CROSS-INDEX .....	118
BLANK TARGET SKILLS INDEX .....	150