

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	viii
-----------------------	------

Section One: Writing in the Kindergarten Classroom

Chapter One: The Importance of Writing Instruction in Emergent Literacy	2
Introduction	2
Writing in the Kindergarten Classroom.....	3
The Reading-Writing Connection	4
An Integrated Approach	5
Chapter Two: Writer’s Workshop—The Framework for Teaching Writing	6
Writer’s Workshop: Predictably Effective.....	6
What Expectations Should I have for Writer’s Workshop?	17
Seven Keys for a Successful Writer’s Workshop.....	19
Chapter Three: The Mini-Lesson	20
The Four Phases of a Mini-Lesson	21
Mini-Lessons Categorized by Function	22
Common Questions Concerning Mini-Lessons	25
A Top Ten List for Effective Mini-Lessons	29
Chapter Four: A Year at a Glance.....	30
Chapter Five: Connecting to Parents	34
Writing Questionnaire	35
Reflective Writing Homework	37
Writing Practice Menu	39
Sending Journals Home	40

Section Two: Operational Mini-Lessons

• Introducing the First Journal	44
• Defining Writer’s Workshop	46
• A Process to Manage Sharing	47
• Managing Journals	48
• Managing Writing Tools.....	50
• Silent/Quiet Writing	51
• Practicing Transitions in Writer’s Workshop.....	52
• Feedback	53
• Audience Etiquette	54
• Conference Etiquette	55

Section Two: Operational Mini-Lessons (continued)

- Making Writing Mistakes.....56
- How to Share Your Writing57
- Buddy Conferences58
- Adding On to a Previous Piece59
- Introducing a Rubric.....60
- Examining the Attributes of a Rubric.....62
- Assessing Writing Using a Rubric.....69
- Making a Plan for Improving Writing70

Section Three: Print Awareness Mini-Lessons

- Temporary or Invented Spelling74
- Every Sound Needs a Letter75
- Letters Make Words/Words Make Sentences.....76
- Spaces Between Words77
- Managing Space on a Page78
- The First Word of a Sentence Has a Capital Letter79
- Where Do You Put a Period?80
- When Do You Use a Question Mark?81
- Every Word Has A Vowel82
- Words Have Families, Too!.....83
- Our Names Start with Capital Letters84
- Left-to-Right/Top-to-Bottom86
- Guided Drawing/Segmentation88
- Using Quotation Marks93

Section Four: Foundational Mini-Lessons

- Writing as Communication96
- Generating Ideas to Write About97
- Making a Brainstorm List.....99
- Using Literature to Generate Writing Topics100
- Description101
- Leads—Hints, Sounds, Feelings, and Questions102
- Sequencing Information103
- Focus104
- Endings—Feelings, Reworded Beginnings, and Questions105
- Describing a Setting106
- Using Transition Words107
- Beginning, Middle, End108

Section Five: Craft Mini-Lessons

- Using Details in Writing.....110
- Active Verbs111
- Color Words112
- Alliteration113
- Unpacking a Heavy Sentence114
- Connecting Sentences Using “And”115
- General to Specific Words116
- Similes Using Color Words.....117
- Specific Word Choice118
- Elaboration119
- Linking Sentences for Elaboration120
- Inserting Information.....122
- Describing Feelings Using the Five Senses123
- Compare/Contrast124
- Writing a Letter.....125

Literature List.....127

Bibliography.....129

About the Authors131